Specializes in Classical; Contemporary styles, mix and belt; and Broadway, Music Theater. I enjoy helping injured voices or those following treatment or surgery. I receive referrals from laryngologists and Boise State University when appropriate. I teach Jr High and High School students as well. I teach voice technique, which aids in the development of a supple and agile instrument with which to sing. With an improved instrument (voice), then one can continue to learn and sing whatever style is needed. New college freshman singers have received scholarships for voice performance. Others of my students sing with local stage performing groups, Boise Baroque, Critical Mass and Opera Idaho.
